HEAVILY ARMED

Editor Lyons, of St. Joseph, Mo., Delivers His Lecture

On "Roman Influence in Public Schools," In Cheyenne, Wyoming.

The Flow of Oratory Winds Up With a Fiery Round Fully Thirty Shots Were Fired—Liquor Arrested and Whi Probably Be a

CHEYENNE, Sept. 26.—T. J. Lyons, editor of the St. Joseph American, of St. Joseph, Mo., attempted to lecture here Sunday night on "Roman Influence in Public Schools."

He had received an intimation that trouble would ensue if he carried out his intention, and when he appeared on the platform he was surrounded by two six-shooters, which he said he would use if necessary to protect himself.

There were fifty people present, many of them being Catholics. He was frequently interrupted during his lecture, and when he attempted to speak to the audience, he was met by a roar of voices.

When nearly all the people had got out Lyons took a revolver, which had been hidden in his coat, and pointed it at the door. Patrick Nolan, a policeman, attempted to disarm him. The crowd closed in upon the two, and Lyons commenced shooting.

The firing became general, and fully thirty rounds were fired in a few seconds. Patrick Nolan, a policeman, was shot twice, one of the bullets passing through his body, inflicting a probably fatal wound. Policeman Nolan was stabbed in the face and neck, receiving two serious wounds. The shooting continued for a few moments, and was followed by a guard of friends, received him at his hotel. An excited crowd of men threatened to lynch him and followed and surrounded the hotel.

Sgt. Kilkenny arrested Lyons in his room, took his revolver from him, after which he was taken to St. Russell for safe keeping. The excitement over the affair is very great, and crowds of men are gathered on the street corners discussing the matter.

It is believed that Lyons, who should die, an attempt to lynch Lyons will surely be made. Lyons is supposed to have come here under the auspices of an anti-Catholic organization which exists in this city. It is not known who did the stabbing.

THE PREACHER A LIAR.

That's the Way a Sailor Interrupted a Chicago Minister's Sermon.

CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—Rev. T. G. Milted, pastor of the Unity Church, has for the past two weeks been preaching a bethel for the sailors which frequent this port. Sunday morning he made the matter a subject of earnest appeal to the members of his congregation. He dwelt at length upon the great need of such a place in Chicago, and urged that "you must do something to help these men. They now have no place to go but to the dives and saloons." What wonder then that they are so disreputable.

"You're a liar!" yelled a voice in the back of the church. "I'm a sailor, and I've been to every port in the world, and want any Bethel home. What we want is wages," and the toller of the sea delivered to the congregation his personal opinion of the pastor, which was neither flattering nor couched in polite language. He efforts to pacify Richards, and the pastor amerciativly son of Neptune was hustled through the sacred portals by an army of sailors. No attempt was made to arrest him.

Furious Storm at Pittsburgh.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Sept. 24.—One thousand houses were damaged or destroyed over this section Sunday night, doing great damage. A high wind prevailed at the time, and the rain fell in torrents. Trees and fences were blown down, telephone, telegraph and electric light wires prostrated and several houses were struck by lightning. As far as known, however, no one was seriously injured. In the Butcher's Run district and in the higher parts of the city, several houses and out-houses washed away from the foundation. The storm last night, Western Union and Postal Telegraph Co. badly crippled, while hundreds of telephones were rendered useless. As a result of the prostration of electric light wires, whole districts were in total darkness. The loss by the storm can not now be estimated.

"KING ALBERT" CONQUERED.

The Leader of a Notorious Gang of Colored Thieves Meets a Terrible Death.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 20.—With a five-inch blade of a dagger sticking to the hilt in the top of his head, Albert Nelsin, known as "King Albert," the leader of the Blue Wing Gang, the most law-defying organization of colored thieves and cut-throats that ever infested this city, ran three square Sunday afternoon, and dropped in a dying condition. As he lay on the floor of his room, the battle still snapped at the hilt, and the entire blade was left in his brain. His agonies were horrible, and his death is expected at any moment. The physicians have pronounced him dead.

This city will be rid of one of the most lawless characters that ever lived here, as well as one of the shrewdest. For six years "King Albert" and his followers have been a menace to law and order, and have been the terror of the city of many a lawless gang, and he is among the last. He met his fall at the hands of Col. C. Neimlich, a barkeeper. "King Albert" walked into Neimlich's place Sunday morning, and was ordered out. He left with his dagger, and when he returned, it suited his convenience. Sunday afternoon he went back to the saloon and dared Neimlich to put his head out. The bar-keeper, knowing the character with whom he had to do, drew a dagger and pointed it at the man's abdomen. Withdrawing it, he sent the blade to the hilt in the top of the man's skull. It was too tight to be withdrawn, and with only the handle protruding from the head, he took three steps back and pointed it at the hilt, and the man was taken to the city hospital, where the physicians were compelled to substitute the tools of a blacksmith for the more delicate instruments of the surgeon to withdraw the five-inch blade. It had to be tapped and levered with a small hammer before it could be taken out with a pair of large pliers.

INNOCENT MAN HANGED

For a Crime He Committed—The Notorious American Confessor.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 26.—Ex-Judge C. J. Bauman, of Kennerly, was arrested in this city charged with being accessory to the attempted assassination of Gen. Long, in Kennerly, last July. He was taken to Gretna by Sheriff Landry, of Jefferson parish, and locked up.

Bauman's arrest grows out of the confession of Dennis Richards, colored, who was arrested Sunday night in a sumptuous house. Richards admits that he fired the shot which wounded Bauman, but further says that Bauman offered him $100 to kill Long.

He says that he was in communication with Bauman after the shooting and that Bauman promised to send him money and use his influence to get him out of trouble.

The confession of Richards was a surprise and the accusation he makes against Bauman creates a sensation, because he is well known. Another feature in this case is that a few weeks ago a colored man named Dion was lynched for the very crime which Richards now confesses he committed by himself, instigated by Bauman.

An Astonished Orgasm.

BIRMINGHAM, Ind., Sept. 20.—Sunday morning, the 12th, a man who did not want any Bethel home. Still After Broadcast.

Vinegarburg—The press of Brown county is making war on the Gretna Green marriage, and the institution which has been in operation for almost a century will be broken up. It is certainly an alarming prospect that a man who served as a notary public, having capacity to swear to marry runaways without license or any authority whatever, as is being done now at Aberdeen by Harry B. Bunting, who is trying to assume the mantle of Squirl Beatty. Let the practice be broken up.

Even Jerusalem has a Boom.

In Palestine, a missionary is a stranger to the country, but the railroad from Jaffa into the city of Jerusalem, over three hundred buildings—residences, hotels and business houses—have been erected. The real estate agents are swarming into the sacred city, and there is a life and bustle all that is strange indeed. The Holy Land will soon be graced with a railroad, which the Jerusalem will be the center. The road from Jaffa to Jerusalem, which will be open for travel September 21st, crosses the valley of Jezreel, and within a few hundred yards of the Pool of Bethesda. Work on the road to Joppa is progressing well, and the Barak Road, which is to be established, a colony of Jews on the line of the road, is building three hundred houses for their use.

At Danville William Prey, a negro desperado, was sentenced to the penitentiary for eight years, for the killing of Jim Hargan, a negro, on June 21st. The killing was a bloody deed, and had it not been for the eloquent plea of Senator Breckinridge, the sentence would have been far more severe for hanging or imprisonment for life.
